First For Auctions is part of LRG and is committed to providing services and products of the very highest standard. When dealing with property we know from time to time things do not always go as smoothly as we would hope. First For Auctions will always do our absolute best to correct any mistakes as we believe in treating all our customers fairly. Our aim is to resolve the matter as soon as we can by:

- Understanding what went wrong and why
- Looking for ways to fix any mistakes made
- Explaining the issue, what we have done and what will happen next

What do you need to do?

In order to work with you to resolve any mistakes made, we need to know what has gone wrong. To resolve your issue quickly, please contact the person dealing with your lot as they will have a detailed knowledge of your circumstances and your property. They will work with you to try to put things right.

Stage 1 - Formal Complaint

Occasionally the local team may not be able to help put things right, so if you are not happy and your issue is unresolved, please get in touch with the First For Auctions Customer Care team, customercare@lrg.co.uk. To put your mind at ease, Customer Care will acknowledge your complaint within three working days so you know we are looking into it for you. After this, Head of Auctions, Daniel Gale, will investigate the case and provide a full response in writing within 15 working days.

Stage 2 - Formal Complaint

If after receiving the Stage 1 response in writing you consider your complaint to be unresolved, please let Customer Care know. The Customer Care Team, under the management of Donna Wright, Director of Customer Support and Engagement, will acknowledge your escalation within three working days assuring you the matter is in hand.

A further independent review will be carried out by the National Sales Managing Director, Kevin Shaw, kshaw@lrg.co.uk to understand the background, the impact it is having on you and how we can resolve the matter. A full and final response will be sent to you within 15 working days.
